

Christian Fellowship Is Dependent upon Fellowship with God

Christian Fellowship does not occur directly between two believers.

As believers, we establish fellowship with the Father and Christ.

Fellowship among believers is not based on a person-to-person relationship, but on having fellowship with God.

If those in a church are to have fellowship with one another they can only do so when they are in fellowship with God.