

Genesis 14:1–20

Abraham's Pursuit of Chedorlaomer & the Mesopotamian Allied Armies:

He divided his forces and in a night assault, defeating them at Dan, and pursued them as far north as Haran north of Damascus.

He rescued Lot along with captured booty and returned to Canaan.

In route, Abraham met Melchizedek, king of Salem, in the Valley of Shaveh.

Melchizedek presented the Eucharist to Abraham and Abraham gave Melchizedek a tithe of the captured booty.

Melchizedek is a type of Christ.
