

Romans 5:15 - But not as the original sin of Adam is the gift [the spiritual death of Christ] that results from grace [the unfailing love of God]. For if [εἰ (ei): introduction to a 1st class condition] by means of that transgression [παράπτωμα (paraptōma): the original sin] of that one man [Adam] the many died [ἀποθνήσκω (apothnēskō): spiritual death], and they did, [begin apodosis] much more then, to a greater degree—a fortiori—the grace of God and the gift of grace [δωρεά + χάρις (dōria + charis): the person and work of Christ producing the availability of salvation] through the one Man, Jesus Christ, who provided superabundance of blessings [περισσεύω (perisseuō) escrow conveyance in time and therefore eternity] to the many who are mature believers.
