

5. Complex, in our application, is defined as:

A whole comprehending in its compass a number of parts, especially of interconnected parts or involved particulars; a complex or complicated whole.

Consisting of or comprehending various parts united or connected together.

To join, unite, attach. To combine into a complex whole.⁶

8. The Construction of the Edification Complex of the Soul

1. The edification complex may be illustrated by the construction of a building in the stream of consciousness of the soul. This building, or edifice, is made up of interconnected parts which we will describe by the terms, “foundation” followed by seven individual floors. They will ultimately form a complex.
 - a. Foundation: The salvation of the individual occurring at faith alone in Christ alone.
 - b. First Floor: The function of Operation Z which is the perception of Bible doctrine from consistent attendance at Bible class or use of electronic contrivances.
 - c. Second Floor: Dispensational orientation, i.e., lucid understanding of the uniqueness of the Church Age.
 - d. Third Floor: Development of the ten problem-solving devices which are important for functioning in experiential Christianity.
 - e. Fourth Floor: Spiritual Self-esteem, the initial stage of spiritual adulthood.
 - f. Fifth Floor: Spiritual Autonomy, the second stage of spiritual adulthood.
 - g. Sixth Floor: Spiritual Maturity, the point at which the believer executes the protocol plan of God.
 - h. Seventh Floor: The modus operandi of the Invisible Hero.
2. The Foundation of the edification complex occurs at the moment the believer places his personal faith in Jesus Christ.

Every believer is imputed forty things at the moment of salvation. These imputations are listed in the book by R. B. Thieme, Jr., The Plan of God, in its Appendix located on pages 30–33.⁷

⁶ The Oxford English Dictionary (1971), s.v. “complex.”

2 Timothy 2:19a Nevertheless, the firm foundation of God stands, having this seal, “The Lord knows those who are His.”

1 Corinthians 3:11 No man can lay a foundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. (NASB)

3. The First Floor initiates a system of spiritual growth that is developed in Scripture. One of the most detailed passages on this system is found in 1 Corinthians 2:6–16. It is from this passage that the visual, “Operation Z,” né “The Grace Apparatus for Perception,” was developed.
4. The Second Floor is comprised of the unique characteristics of the Church Age which are developed in the study of dispensationalism.

There are ten unique things in the Church Age that believers in other dispensations do not possess. As a result, there is tremendous emphasis on the individual believer in the Church Age.

1. The baptism of the Holy Spirit results in the creation of a new spiritual species and membership in the royal family of God. Understanding this makes the believer aware of the tremendous requirements related to his spiritual life.

A species is a class of individuals having common attributes designated by a common name. All genus Homo sapiens is descended from Adam through Noah’s three sons. Only two new species have been subsequently added: the Jew, a new racial species, and among believers, a new spiritual species.

The Jewish race emerged from Abraham and Sarah through the birth of Isaac, the first natural-born, full-blooded Jew. The new spiritual species is unique to Church-Age believers who are regenerated by the baptism of the Holy Spirit at the moment of faith alone in Christ alone.

Jesus Christ was the prototype in His true humanity during the dispensation of the Hypostatic Union. His human perfection established the prototype divine dynasphere in which He functioned throughout His physical life.

Church-Age believers have the option of functioning inside the operational divine dynasphere in which they are able to produce divine good under the filling of the Holy Spirit.

The new racial species of the Jew and the new spiritual species of the Church-Age believer are witnesses for the Prosecution in Lucifer's appeal of a prehistoric trial whose verdict assigned all fallen angels to eternity in the lake of fire.

Each new species, the racial Jew and the spiritual believer, originated from a category of biblical death: (1) Jews originated from Abraham's sexual death noted in Romans 4:17–21; Hebrews 11:11–12. (2) The Church originated from the baptism of the Holy Spirit, by union with the substitutionary spiritual death of Christ on the cross.

- 2. The modus operandi for the Church-Age believer is protocol which is the summary statement of their obligations to God and His plan:

A rigid, long-established code, prescribing complete deference to superior ranks and authority, followed by strict adherence to due order of precedence, coupled with precisely correct procedure.

From the definition of protocol, a divine system of authority is recognized. It is made available by divine revelation in Scripture. Some of this authority is delegated while some is in writing.

This "writing" must have a system of communication. The divine policies that protect this communication are referred to as "verbal-plenary inspiration," defined thusly:

God so supernaturally directed the human writers of Scripture, that without waiving their intelligence, their individuality, their personal feelings, their literary style, or any other factor of expression, God's complete and coherent message to mankind was recorded with perfect accuracy in the original languages of Scripture, the very words bearing the authority of divine authorship.

Verbal means that the Bible, in the original languages from first to last, is the exact record of the mind and the will of God as He intended it to be:

God is the author of the Bible. The focus of inspiration is the words of the Bible. All the words and all the verbal relationships are inspired by God. The data of the Bible are God-breathed and Spirit-borne inspiration. God sovereignly prepared the writers for the instrumental task so they willingly and naturally recorded God's revelation in the way He required. The autographs of the biblical books are solely thus inspired. Inerrancy is the quality of such a Bible with exactitude on all matters. Authority flows from such a Bible concerning what a Christian is to believe and how he is to live.⁸

Plenary means full, entire, and complete. This asserts that God is the author of the Bible. The focus of inspiration is on the writers of the Bible. The writers have been inspired in all that they have written [i.e., revelation], through varied ways. The Bible is described as without error, without mistake, and infallible.⁹

3. A portfolio of Invisible Assets. This portfolio consists of three doctrines. The first is the Sovereignty of God related to the human race, the Love of God which is the Integrity of God, and His Omniscience.

Divine sovereignty is expressed in the divine decree. This divine mission statement for mankind is organized within the framework of time categorized into six dispensations.

Principle: In human history, the sovereignty of God and the free will of man coexist by divine decree. God is absolute; man is qualified.¹⁰

In eternity past, the sovereignty of God decided to create a counterpart to His sovereignty: a free will in every person to function during human history as a part of resolving the angelic conflict.

Free will is part of the human soul imputed at physical birth and may be characterized as the Law of Freedom.

(End JAS3-57-Review. See JAS3-58-Review for continuation of study at p. 31).

⁸ I. S. Rennie, "Verbal Inspiration," in Evangelical Dictionary of Theology, ed. Walter A. Elwell (Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 1984), 1140.

⁹ Ibid., "Plenary Inspiration," 860.

¹⁰ "To fit by training, skill, or ability for a special purpose. To declare competent or adequate. To be or become fit: meet required standard. To acquire legal or competent power or capacity" (Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, 11th ed. [2003], s.v. "qualify").

The love of God is the Integrity of God and the Integrity of God is the Love of God. His righteousness is absolute. His justice is the guardian of His righteousness. His omniscience guarantees that all the facts were consulted. The grace of God is the policy for His integrity.

Omniscience means that God knows perfectly, eternally, and simultaneously all that is knowable whether actual or possible.

God is infinite and therefore has infinite knowledge. God is truth and His knowledge is totally and perfectly accurate. Therefore, the future is as perspicuous to Him as the past.

This portfolio of invisible assets with regard to the believer is the subject of this comment by Paul in:

1 Corinthians 2:9 It stands written [in Isaiah 64:4], “Things which eye has not seen and ear has not heard, and which have not entered the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love Him.”

4. Regardless of human characteristics, either positive or negative, every believer has equality given to Him by God.

It is impossible for a man or a group of people to make a person equal. Man can only provide the Law of Liberty which permits volition to function within the framework of the laws and customs in a free society.

True equality originates with the baptism of the Holy Spirit and entry into union with Christ. But spiritual freedom means, that following, salvation divergences among believers begin to develop.

This inclination brings about diversity. Under the Law of Freedom, some believers pursue truth and become winner believers while some through lack of interest or persistence become loser believers.

Nevertheless, because we are entered into Union with Christ at salvation, every believer is in the royal family of God.

5. All believers have two royal commissions: (1) Royal Priests and (2) Royal ambassadors.

The Royal Priesthood of the believer is mentioned in Scripture but is ancillary to that of Jesus Christ who is our High Priest according to the order of Melchizedek (Hebrews 7:15–17).

Our association with the royal priesthood is mentioned by Peter in:

1 Peter 2:9a But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation ...

The chief privilege of a priest is access to God. Under law, only the high priest could enter “the holy place” only once a year (Hebrews 9:7); but when Christ died, the veil, a type of Christ’s human body (Hebrews 10:20), was torn, so that now the believer-priests, equally with Christ the High Priest, have access to God in the holy of holies (Hebrews 10:19–22).¹

The Royal Ambassador. A high-ranking minister of state of royalty sent to another state to represent his sovereign or country. By analogy, we are spiritual aristocracy as members of the royal family of God, and Christ is the King who has sent us into a foreign country, i.e., the devil’s world.

The ambassador does not treat any insult to himself as personal. This is the royal ambassador’s function in both spiritual self-esteem and unconditional love for all mankind. We tolerate others and hold no grudges.

When insulted, treated unfairly, or ridiculed, we have tremendous problem-solving devices to deploy and leave the situation in the Lord’s hands.

Royal ambassadorship is specialized and intensified in the gift of pastor-teacher. All communication gifts (evangelists and pastors-teachers) become critical and specialized functions of ambassadorship because they communicate spiritual truth. Paul addresses this in:

Ephesians 6:19 Pray on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, ¹ C. I. Scofield, “The New Testament Priesthood, Summary,” in The Scofield Study Bible (New York: Oxford University Press, 2005), 1698n2:9(4).

Ephesians 6:20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in proclaiming it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

Empowered with the immutable Word of God, evangelists and pastors-teachers must communicate with confidence. To do this each man must be occupied with Christ and have spiritual self-esteem because of constant opposition from those who hate the truth.

The evangelist and pastor-teacher must always communicate with confidence no matter what reception members of an audience might offer.

Principle: Once what I teach leaves my mouth, my job is done! What happens next is determined by the Law of Freedom possessed by each person in attendance.

Royal ambassadorship is obviously related to evangelism. This is universally assigned to every believer plus men with the spiritual gift of evangelist. The former witness through verbal communication of the gospel to those in his or her periphery. Men with the spiritual gift of evangelist function one-on-one or to groups.

Gary Watson has a tremendously successful ministry toward those who are incarcerated and that is having significant historical impact in penitentiaries, prisons, and jails.

Gary, too, cuts no slack for those who attend for an hour's escape from their otherwise miserable routine. If a person is obviously not positive and/or disruptive, he ushers them to the door.

I don't have to use that tactic. I can flush a negative person from the room just by teaching a boring Bible class.

The key each of us has on our side is the Greek word, ἀλήθεια (alētheia): "truth." This is a rare commodity in our society today. Few want to hear the truth but instead prefer to believe the lie.

We also are being observed by angels, both elect and fallen. The elect rejoice over the salvation of one sinner:

Luke 15:10 "I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

Fallen angels are deployed to resist the efforts of royal ambassadors:

Ephesians 6:12 Our combat keeps on being not against blood and flesh but against demon generals, commissioned officers, ambassadors of darkness, and spirit forces of evil in the heavenlies. (EXT)

Ambassadors are always being observed by both elect and fallen angels. These observations are mentioned several times in Scripture:

1 Corinthians 4:9 I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men condemned to death; because we have become a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men.

Ephesians 3:10 The manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.

1 Timothy 5:21 I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels, to maintain these principles without bias, doing nothing in a spirit of partiality.

Finally, it is especially interesting that the apostles, followed by prophets, evangelists, pastors-teachers, and believers in general (see Ephesians 4:11–12) were instructing elect angels who knew nothing about the Church Age and its theology:

1 Peter 1:10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets who predicted the grace that would come to you searched and investigated carefully.

v. 11 They probed into what person or time the Spirit of Christ within them was indicating when he testified beforehand about the sufferings appointed for Christ and His subsequent glory.

v. 12 They were shown, through revelation, that they were serving not themselves but you, in regard to the things now announced to you through those who proclaimed the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven—things angels long to catch a glimpse of. (NET)

6. Church Age believers have the unique mystery doctrines.

The English word mystery is the noun μυστήριον (mustérion): “Secret or esoteric knowledge.”

In the writings of Paul, the word mustérion is sometimes applied in a peculiar sense to the calling of the Gentiles. In Ephesians 3:3–6, the fact that Gentiles could be fellow-heirs and of the same body and partakers of Christ by the gospel is called “the mystery” and “the mystery of Christ.”²

Paul refers to Church-Age doctrine as a mystery because its revelations were not revealed in the books of the Tanakh and therefore not known to the Jewish people. The New Testament reveals this information that was previously unknown but now revealed.

The major principle associated with the mystery is the imputation of divine power to the believer through the indwelling and filling ministries of the Holy Spirit. Jesus prophesied this in:

Acts 1:5 John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.

Acts 1:8 You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.”

Paul’s writings on this subject are worth noting. In six of His epistles he uses the word seventeen times. Here are three pertinent to the subject of “mystery doctrines”:

1 Corinthians 2:7 But we communicate God’s wisdom in a mystery [(mustérion)], the hidden assets which God predestined before the ages for the purpose of our glory. (EXT)

Doctrine is invisible and hidden. Those who inculcate it are invisible heroes. Those without doctrine have wrong priorities due to ignorance of mystery doctrine.

² Spiros Zodhiates, ed., “mustérion,” in The Complete Word Study Dictionary: New Testament, rev. ed. (Chattanooga: AMG Publishers, 1993), 1000.

Knowledge is power. Paul's use of the noun mustérion refers to invisible power by the complete knowledge of revealed truth available only to those who study New Testament theology.

Ephesians 3:9 ... to bring to light what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God Who created all things;

v. 10 so that the manifold wisdom of God might now be made known through the church to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places.

Note that the Holy Spirit reveals doctrines that were unknown to Old Testament Jews but are revealed to the writers of the New Testament. The church is the facility in which these mysteries are communicated and made known.

This mystery is available only to a select group of people: (1) those who have placed their personal faith in Jesus Christ for salvation, (2) have confessed their sins to the Father, (3) are subsequently filled by the Holy Spirit, and (4) are concentrating on the communication of the Word of God by a pastor-teacher in a local church or by electronic contrivance.

Matthew 13:10 The disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them [large crowds standing on the beach] in parables?"

v. 11 Jesus answered them, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted."

The mystery doctrines of the Church Age are based on the fulfillment of the messianic prophecies of the Tanakh. Isaiah 9:6–7 is prophetic of the virgin birth of Messiah, His ultimate reign in the Millennium on David's throne in perpetuity. This is addressed by Paul in:

1 Timothy 3:16 By consent of all, great is the mystery [Church Age revelation] with reference to godliness [εὐσέβεια (eusébeia)]: the One Christ Who became visible by means of the flesh, was vindicated by means of the Holy Spirit, was carefully scrutinized by angels, was proclaimed among the nations, became the object of faith in the world, and was taken up to glory. (EXT)

The noun “godliness” sounds as if it means “god likeness,” however that simplification demands some analysis:

Although eusébeia in the New Testament is translated “godliness”, the word “God” is not in it. The word eusébeia literally means well-directed reverence, but does not imply an inward, inherent holiness. (p. 683)

When eusébeia is applied to the Christian life, it denotes a life that is acceptable to Christ, indicating the proper attitude of the believer toward Christ Who has saved him. It is in this manner that 1 Timothy 4:7 says, “Exercise thyself rather unto godliness.” It does not come automatically but is something into which we must put effort.

In 1 Timothy 3:16, we are told that eusébeia is a mystery. This refers to a holy life resulting from God’s incarnation in the person of Jesus Christ when that incarnation and all that it entails is truly believed. This is eusébeia, a holiness initiated in the life of the believer by Christ Himself through the Spirit.³ (p. 684)

7. The Indwelling of the Trinity.

Church-Age believers enjoy the unique spiritual life related to the fact that all three persons of the Trinity actually indwell them.

God the Father:

Ephesians 4:6 One God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all.

The final phrase, “in all,” refers to the indwelling of the Father.

God the Son:

Colossians 1:27 God willed to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

The phrase “in you” refers to Matthew 13:11 where the doctrine of the mysteries is introduced by the Lord which includes the indwelling of Jesus Christ:

³ Ibid., “εὐσέβεια,” 683–84.

A “mystery” or “secret” in Scripture is a previously hidden truth now divinely revealed. This chapter [Matthew 13] shows clearly for the first time that there will be an interval between Christ’s first and second advents.⁴

In this paragraph, the mystery cited is, “the mystery of the indwelling Christ” (Galatians 2:20; Colossians 1:26–27).

God the Holy Spirit:

Romans 8:11 If the Spirit of Him Who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He Who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit Who dwells in you.

There is a difference between the indwelling and filling ministries of the Holy Spirit. The former emphasizes the believer’s body while the latter emphasizes the believer’s soul. Indwelling is irrevocable while the filling is revocable through carnality but restored through rebound.

8. Infinite energy and power belong to God.

2 Peter 1:3 His divine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true knowledge of Him Who called us by His Own glory and excellence.

God has made His divine power available to every Church Age believer for the execution of the unique spiritual life: (1) the power of the Word of God circulating in our souls, (2) the unique assets of the Church Age, (3) the filling of the Holy Spirit, and (4) the function of the spiritual gifts.⁵

This divine power in the soul of believers is unique to the Church Age:

The omnipotence of the Father is related to our invisible assets some of which are noted in the preceding paragraph.

The omnipotence of Jesus Christ is related to the perpetuation of history and preservation of the universe:

⁴ Scofield, “Mysteries in Scripture,” The Scofield Study Bible, 1330fn13:11.

⁵ R. B. Thieme, Jr., The Integrity of God, 4th ed. (Houston: R. B. Thieme, Jr., Bible Ministries, 2005), 289.

Colossians 1:16 For by means of Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, the visible things and invisible things, whether human governments or constituted authorities, or angelic rulers and authorities: all things through Him and for His purpose stand created.

v. 17 He eternally existed before all things, and by means of Him all things hold together [gravity]. (EXT)

Jesus Christ will “hold all things together” until the end of human history, at which point His hold will be released and gravity will cease:

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord [destruction of the universe] will come like a thief, in which the heavens will disappear with a roar and the elements will be dissolved with intense heat, and the earth and its works [human good and evil] will be incinerated [no gravity].

v. 11 Since in this way all things must be destroyed, what sort of person must you become in your spiritual life,

v. 12 while looking forward with confidence and the hastening of the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the elements will melt with intense heat?

v. 13 But on the basis of His promise [of better things in the eternal state] we are looking forward with confidence to new heavens and a new earth [the Eternal State] in which perfect righteousness dwells.

v. 14 Therefore, beloved, since we are looking forward with confidence for these things, be self-motivated to be found in Him in a state of tranquility, spotless and blameless. (EXT)

The omniscience of the Holy Spirit is related to the operational divine power system.

9. The Church Age is the only dispensation in history without prophecy.

There are only two prophecies related to the Church Age and they relate to its termini.

The inauguration of the Church Age was the baptism of the Holy Spirit which occurred in Acts 2:1–4, prophesied by our Lord in:

Acts 1:8 “But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.

The termination of the Church Age is prophesied several times and is commonly known as the Rapture of the church.

The English word “rapture” is derived from the Latin raptus: “carrying off.” The definition of the English word “rapture” includes:

The act of seizing and carrying off. The act of conveying a person from one place to another, especially to heaven; the fact of being so conveyed.⁶

The word that refers to the raptus, or the Rapture, in the Koine Greek text of the New Testament is ἁρπάζω (harpázō):

1 Thessalonians 4:17 Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up [predictive future passive indicative of ἁρπάζω (harpázō): snatch away] together with them [the “dead in Christ” (v. 16)] in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord.

10. The only dispensation of both visible and invisible heroes.

The Church Age is a dispensation of visible heroes whose historical impact functions in harmony with the laws of divine establishment. Invisible heroes are those believers who advance to spiritual maturity.

(End JAS3-58-Review. See JAS3-59-Review for continuation of study at p. 41.)

⁶ The Oxford English Dictionary (1971), s.v. “rapture.”

5. The Third Floor is where accumulation of biblical problem-solving devices is developed. There are ten of them that are developed sequentially. As spiritual growth develops, the believer advances from spiritual childhood to spiritual maturity. These problem-solving devices are: (1) Rebound: Confession Alone to God Alone [1 John 1:9] which results in (2) Filling of the Holy Spirit [Ephesians 5:18b; Galatians 5:16]. The basic device is (3) the Faith-Rest Drill [Romans 4:20–21]. (4) Grace Orientation results in eliminating legalism from the soul [1 Peter 5:5b–6]. (5) Doctrinal Orientation [Romans 12:2–3]: Bible study accumulates specific biblical categories that develop into doctrines. This advance results in (6) Personal Sense of Destiny [Romans 14:7–8], orientation to the Christian way of life in time and a clear focus on eternity. The most powerful device in the sophisticated spiritual life is (7) Personal Love for God [Romans 8:28] which provides the mental capacity to have (8) Unconditional Love for all mankind [1 Corinthians 13:4–7]. Having total command of one’s soul results in the copacetic spiritual life: (9) Unalloyed Happiness or Sharing the Happiness of God [John 15:11]. The summum bonum is (10) Occupation with the Person of Christ [Philippians 1:20–21].
6. The Fourth Floor is spiritual self-esteem characterized by cognitive self-confidence. “‘Cognition’ means ‘to come to know.’ ‘Cognitive’ is the adjective and refers to conscious intellectual activity such as thinking, reasoning, or remembering. Here you have the capacity to apply empirical factual knowledge.”¹
1. The Fourth Floor is where you begin to apply and use Bible doctrine. Previously, the go-to problem-solving device was claiming promises. Now you rely on facilitated categories of doctrine.
 2. The two problem-solving devices are Personal love for God and Unconditional love for all mankind. With these doctrines inculcated and facilitated, the believer is prepared to face and endure suffering for blessing.
 3. This category of suffering is providential preventive which is for blessing. The exigencies common to the devil’s world often confront believers who are unprepared to overcome them.

4. Cognitive self-confidence is a level of spiritual advance where one's inventory of biblical doctrines are sufficient to face challenges by using divine power to oppose and overcome them.
5. The devil's world not only produces great categories of suffering yet has the temerity to also offer its cosmic solutions in the form of psychotherapy whose primary problem-solving device is the development of self-administered self-esteem.
6. Contrarily, spiritual utilization of personal love of God and unconditional love for mankind provides a mind-set that empowers the believer to orient to sophisticated problem-solving.
7. The love of God is the integrity of God founded on His righteousness, protected by His justice, and confirmed by His omniscience while functioning under His policy of grace.
8. This defines God's love for us. If we are to love God, we must acquire the same mind-set although on a human level. It begins with the development of personal integrity based on an ever-enlarging inventory of theological ideas.
9. Our love for God must be founded on the presence of divine viewpoint in our souls each principle reflecting righteous standards obtained from Scripture.
10. Because we do not know all things and because we have the propensity to sin, we must develop an internal police department, constantly critiquing our inventory of ideas.
11. This requires orientation to divine justice to which volition must rely in decision-making. The believer can only access the doctrine he knows in order to decide how to apply.
12. In English dictionaries, the noun "self-esteem" is defined as "a confidence and satisfaction in oneself." In other words, human viewpoint.
13. In spiritual self-esteem, the inventory of ideas is not based on human viewpoint but biblical principles. At this level of spiritual growth, the believer has advanced to the point that his inventory of doctrinal ideas has produced "spiritual self-esteem."
