

Ephesians 4:25 Therefore, having laid aside cosmic concepts, each one of you keep communicating absolute truth each one of you with your fellow believers because we are fellow members of the royal family of God.
(EXT)

24. The above passage describes the spiritual environment that the believer must develop and aggrandize in order to occupy and from which to function during the time of spiritual decline and the advent of the cycles of discipline.
25. There is a playbook to which spiritually mature believers must apply when the Client Nation's Zeitgeist is transformed away from the laws of divine establishment over to the tyrannical notions of the cosmic systems.
25. The power is in the Word of God and is the artillery which the believer must know and apply. Reliance upon the Word and obedience to it for your first line of defense, for it is the power that ultimately takes down the lie:

Ephesians 5:6 Let no one deceive you by means of enticing words from the source of the Dark Side, for because of these ideas, the Word of God is coming upon the sons of disbelief.

Principles Regarding the Cosmic Lust for Power

1. The demand for power always exceeds the need for power. Legitimate authority requires relatively few people.
2. Outside legitimate authority is always the arrogant who demand power and demand to be recognized.
3. When those who are arrogant are the ones who do not have power but are willing to violate the law to acquire it then the end result is violence.
4. This conflict between legitimate power and those who lust for power historically leads to one of two consequences: (1) the overthrow of a Client Nation from enemies within or (2) the overt destruction of a nation from enemies without.
5. The destruction of a Client Nation is the result of failing to see the requirement and necessity for a strong military to defend from enemies without or well-prepared and well-trained law enforcement from within.

(End RECK-20.17. See RECK-20.18 for continuation of study at p. 171.)

6. These challenges can only be averted or overcome by a large Pivot of mature believers, from without by a superior military establishment and within by well-trained law enforcement agencies.
7. In our current situation, the biblical analysis puts us at the crossroads of whether the present Pivot is large enough to withstand the assaults from within or too small to offer any meaningful resistance.
8. For almost a year, the strategy and tactics of the Dark Side have overwhelmed establishment safeguards, corrupted the system of free elections, and imposed violence within the streets free of jurisprudence.
9. These downtrends have been allowed to occur because of the prolonged decline of Pivot power within the commonwealth. With a major decline of establishment viewpoint, rebellion against anything biblical, and motivated by power lust, a major political party and its minions have been able to do what the British, the Germans (twice), and the Japanese have been unable to do: successfully execute a revolt within our own borders with little or no resistance.
10. This nation is at a crossroads of whether it can recover from this rebellion. The recent election has potentially put in place a system whose stated objective is to completely transform our free republic into a oligarchy consisting of ultra-wealthy entrepreneurs, complicit politicians of local, state, and national power brokers, and a dumbed-down electorate which has bought the lie.
11. These have come together to deploy systems of terror that Aldous Huxley (Brave New World), George Orwell (Animal Farm and Nineteen Eighty-four), and James Clavell (The Children's Story) each wrote as fiction. Left to their own devices, the current gaggle of Big Brothers are bringing these writers' fictional ruminations into the full light of day.
12. There is only one alternative available and that only for a precious few. They are the ones who have a sophisticated inventory of the immutable Word of God—the Pivot of mature believers who, without fear, stand fast behind the divinely enforced walls of absolute truth facilitated in their souls' stream of consciousness.

The Doctrine of the Client Nation

A. Definition.

1. A Client Nation is under the protection of God because of a large Pivot of believers whose major responsibility is to provide for the preservation, communication, and fulfillment of the canon of Scripture.
 - a. Before the Israel became a nation in 1441 B.C., custodianship of the Word of God involved divine revelation prior to Moses' authorship of the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Bible.
 - b. After Israel became a nation, it was the resource for the authorship, preservation, and distribution of Scripture.
 - c. During the writing and distribution of the New Testament books, the Client Nation changed from Judea to the Roman Empire in A.D. 70.
2. The concept of a Client Nation was first introduced by Moses. He was commanded by God to inform the people of Israel the following which is cited in:

Exodus 19:4 'You yourselves have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagle's wings, and brought you to Myself.

v. 5 'Now then, if you will indeed obey My voice and keep My covenant, then you shall be My own possession among all the peoples, for all the earth is Mine;

v. 6 and you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the sons of Israel."

3. This declaration is repeated several times which emphasizes the point that the people of Israel are a special people to God with a unique mission assigned to them.
4. This idea is the subject of other passages that expand on the idea:

Deuteronomy 7:6 "For you are a holy people to the Lord your God; the Lord your God has chosen you to be a people for His own possession out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.

Deuteronomy 26:18 "The Lord has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession, as He promised you, and that you should keep all His commandments;

Deuteronomy 26:19 and that He will set you high above all nations which He has made, for praise, fame, and honor; and that you shall be a consecrated people to the Lord your God, as He has spoken.”

5. During human history, there have been two derivations of Client Nations, the five Jewish Client Nations of the Old Testament, which we have studied, and a synopsis of those in Gentile Client Nations beginning with Rome down to the present hour in the United States.
6. The Jewish category of Client Nation is also referred to as a Priest Nation because it had a specialized priesthood within the tribe of Levi. Its primary obligations were presenting all the aspects of the Jewish faith through the presentation of rituals and ordinances.
7. No such obligation is placed on Gentile Client Nations since every believer is a priest and not assigned to a specific group of people. Therefore, it is a universal priesthood of believers.
8. There are specific responsibilities for the priesthood of believers in the Church Age.

1 Peter 2:9 But you and only you are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a protected people that you should communicate to others the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into his amazing light.

9. There is a specific designation for those who populate a Gentile Client Nation found in the Greek text of:

2 Corinthians 5:17 Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature [καινός κτίσις (kainós ktísis): “a new spiritual species”]; the old things [ἀρχαίος (archaíos): spiritual death] have passed away [παρέρχομαι (parérchomai): vanished]; behold, new things have come.

10. Client Nations to God are under divine protection when it contains a large and advancing Pivot whose members provide blessings by association to those in the population and provide historical blessings upon the nation.
11. Yet a Client Nation is destroyed by the reversionistic decline of believers who spin-off from the Pivot of mature believers. It is tragic that some who advance to the level of spiritual maturity allow themselves to stop the necessary advance of spiritual growth and backslide into reversionism.

12. When there is Pivot shrinkage over a period of time, then at some point the Client Nation loses its relationship with God which precipitates the advance of the five cycles of discipline.

B. The Destruction of a Client Nation

1. There were numerous periods of apostasy in Client Nation Israel. Its presence always resulted in the decline and then the fall of the nation involved.
2. In the Israelite Client Nations, the source of the decline was the negative volition of the priesthood in association with the civil authorities and the Jewish population in general.
3. The Old Testament provides examples of the loss of thought that illustrates reasons for the decline and fall of a Client Nation:

Jeremiah 6:13 “For from the least of them even to the greatest of them, everyone is greedy for gain, and from the prophet even to the priest everyone deals falsely.

v. 14 “They have healed the brokenness of My people superficially, saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ but there is no peace.

v. 15 “Were they ashamed because of the abomination they have done? They were not even ashamed at all; they did not even know how to blush. Therefore, they shall fall among those who fall; at the time that I punish them, they shall be cast down,” says the Lord. (EXT)

4. The prophet Ezekiel offers one of his exhortations on the issue of reversionism. One example is his castigations of the prophets who led the people astray.

Ezekiel 13:10 “It is definitely because they [the false prophets] have misled My people by saying, ‘Peace!’ when there is no peace. And when anyone builds a wall [the lies of the civil leaders], behold, they cover it with whitewash [false solutions for the nation’s problems];

v. 11 so tell those who plaster it over with whitewash, that it will fall. A flooding rain will come, and you, O hailstones, will fall; and a violent wind will break out.

v. 12 “Behold, when the wall has fallen, will you not be asked, ‘Where is the plaster with which you plastered it?’”
