

Cosmic Assaults on Parental Teachings: Political Correctness; Pocahontas

Teaching instills into the child's conscience the standards of right conduct. No teaching no standards. Without standards, the child will follow his own propensities and opt for human-viewpoint problem-solving devices.

It should be understood that in early childhood, emphasis on control does not imply the absence of teaching. Control is designed to produce obedience. An obedient child can be taught no matter what his age.

Rebellious children therefore find themselves under constant constraints while the obedient child finds that compliance to standards expands his freedom. Consequently, the disobedient child cannot learn principles of freedom and finds himself in varying degrees of confinement which diminish his freedom.

The obedient child has the capacity to learn and thus finds his freedom increases accordingly. When rules are understood and followed habitually then the parents may successfully reason with their children.

A word of caution: Even when successful in training and teaching your children there awaits for you both the challenges of a contorted Zeitgeist.

You can spend 13 years establishing standards and the next seven teaching their rationales but the society in which we live is in constant opposition to these standards.

One of the most insidious assaults on establishment standards is found in the public schools. One of the techniques currently being used to discredit our nation's superior heritage is what is known as Political Correctness. Here is a check list of the principle tenets of Political Correctness which appeared in the March 1995 newsletter of Phyllis Schlafly:

1. Everything is political. All academic subjects must be seen through the prism of race and gender oppression.
2. Victimology. Every group is entitled to claim minority status as victims except ... white males and Christians.
3. Multiculturalism. A code word for the false notion that Western Civilization is bad and every other group, whether civilized or not, is superior.
4. Radical feminism. The entire world must be seen as one big conspiracy against women, and all men are guilty individually and as a group. Joking about this doctrine is not permitted.
5. Affirmative action. Reverse discrimination in admissions, grading, and employment for groups that proclaim their status as "victims" is not only mandatory, it is non-debatable.
6. Diversity. Having sex with anybody, anytime, is OK and may not be criticized. The social acceptance of homosexual behavior and activism is non-debatable.
7. Tolerance. A code word meaning tolerance for Politically Correct views, but not for the Politically Incorrect.

The only way such things as these can be neutralized is for parents to begin instilling as early as possible the standards of establishment truth and Bible doctrine into the consciences of their children's souls.
