

6. Momentum

The spiritual impetus realized by means of the repeated utilization, enlargement, and application of memory traces, or wheel-tracks of righteousness.

Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, s.v. "impetus":

Stimulation or encouragement resulting in increased activity.

Remember, in our "Glossary of Neurology" the term facilitation is defined as:

The enlargement of a memory trace into a path of least resistance by means of practice, repetition, or rehearsal. In the field of learning, memory traces are facilitated by means of conditioning, instruction, indoctrination, inculcation, review, study, and application.

The brain is ignorant of any concepts of right and wrong, good and evil, or righteousness and wickedness. The trigger which determines what goes into long-term memory traces is personal volition, one of the characteristics of the human soul.

Once in memory, a wheel-track is facilitated by the volition as well. With every case of recall, decision-making, and application of that memory trace, its neurons and synapses are facilitated. We have learned that such repetition causes the trace's axonal and dendritic branches to elongate, new synapses to be created, interconnections to become more efficient and complex, and synaptic junctions to be fine-tuned.

When facilitation continues to occur within a wheel-track of righteousness it becomes the impetus for spiritual momentum. The facilitation of two related wheel-tracks of righteousness provides momentum within an association. The facilitation of three or more related wheel-tracks of righteousness provides momentum within a constellation. The facilitation of constellations of wheel-tracks of righteousness provides momentum within the neural network. Facilitation of the neural network results in the final compartment of the stream of consciousness: wisdom.

There are two levels of momentum in the spiritual life:

Normal spiritual growth which involves the laying of wheel-tracks and their facilitation into paths of least resistance.

Peter 2:2 - Like newborn babies eagerly desire the unadulterated milk of the word, that you may grow by means of it as a result of salvation.

Accelerated spiritual growth which facilitates problem-solving devices into paths of least resistance. This results in total FLOT-Line deployment against all outside adversities.

Philippians 2:12 - So then, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed my teachings [over the past 15 years], not only in my presence but now much more in my absence, [katergazomai] continue the willing cultivation of your streams of consciousness to the ultimate conclusion of harvesting [soteria] your own deliverance from danger and your own preservation from persecution, accompanied by reverence and respect.

Philippians 2:13 - For it is the Holy Spirit who is at work in you both to motivate the desire and to execute above and beyond God's good pleasure.

Philippians 2:14 - Keep on doing all things without discontent and argumentations which undermine establishment authority.

Philippians 2:15 - In order that [purpose clause] you yourselves might become [potential for historical impact] blameless [establishment integrity based on constellations of wheel-tracks in the conscience] even undiluted by evil [Christian integrity based on constellations of wheel-tracks in categorical storage], students under the discipline and authority of God [genuine humility] not a disgrace to society [a person of honor], in the midst of a crooked, perverted, and contorted Zeitgeist [the inventory of the emotions and streams of consciousness of the general population], among whom you keep shining as light-giving bodies [the reflection of the indwelling Shekinah Glory manifest as a uniform of honor] in the Devil's world.

Paul refers to advanced momentum by use of the word huperauzano in:

Thessalonians 1:3 - We ought always to give thanks to God concerning you, fellow believers, as is fitting, because your faith has maximum growth [huperauzano: full facilitation] and the virtue love [problem-solving devices 7 & 8] of each one of you toward one another keeps on increasing.

When the believer's entire neural network is fully facilitated then it produces capacity for thought called wisdom.
